Message to Parents:

This is the 13th year of the Harlan Community "Cyclone Junior Golf Program", directed by Chad Swanson and Todd Bladt. Mr. Swanson and Mr. Bladt are teachers and varsity golf coaches at Harlan Community High School with many years of coaching experience.

The 2023 Cyclone Junior Golf Program will be open to elementary and middle school students. Instruction will stress the fundamentals of golf, but will also focus on developing a positive attitude and a solid work ethic. Above all, the camp will teach golf skills in a fun-filled, enthusiastic atmosphere where everyone will participate equally.

The major purposes of the program are:

- 1) To provide quality golf instruction to local players at a reasonable and affordable price.
- 2) To encourage youngsters to play and enjoy the game of golf.

 Return Times - Usually before 1:30 pm

 Participants - ALL Jr Golfers participating in the Cyclone Summer Golf Program can go to any or all of the tournaments.

 Snack – All participants and scorekeepers will be provided a snack following the tournament. Lunch is FREE!!! You may want to send a small amount of money with your child to purchase a cold drink before or during play.

 Transportation - We NEED parents/grandparents to drive to one or more of the tournaments. We would like to take all golfers who want to go, so please plan to sign up and go. It is a lot of fun and great for the kids.

 Scorekeepers – Drivers may be asked to keep score at tournaments out of town and we will ask for volunteers at the Harlan tournament as well. You will enjoy the smiles you get from these young people!

 Age Divisions – TBD – trophies and/or medals in each division

 Rules – Will be adapted for each age division (# of holes, hole length, max strokes, etc.) and will be forthcoming – the camp and camp tournament will prepare golfers for tourney play and etiquette.
